1. Scope and Applicability.

The provisions mentioned here apply to the students, faculty members and non-teaching staff of the higher educational institutions (HEIs). The guidelines emphasize integration across all institutional domains, academic, administrative, residential, and extracurricular, ensuring that mental health is not confined to the Mental Health & Well-being Centre only but becomes a shared responsibility across all stakeholders.

2. Roles and Responsibilities of Mental Health and Well-being Monitoring Committee.

The primary objectives of the monitoring committee is to supervise the implementation of the uniform mental health policy for nurturing mental health in academia, ensure smooth functioning of the Mental Health and Well-being centre along the code of ethics and legal boundaries of practice, collect and store anonymized data from the centres/ report incidents of crisis and emergencies/ incidents of harassment as well as management undertaken for each / challenges faced and dealt with, for further reporting to the UGC.
